

2011-12 CMA STUDENT AMBASSADOR – Ashley Wadson – Lakehead University – Honours Bachelor of Commerce

My name is Ashley Wadson and I am Lakehead University's CMA Ambassador for the 2011-2012 school year. I am a third year Honours Bachelor of Commerce student with a specialization in accounting.

I am interested in the CMA designation because of its management orientation. Many companies are looking for individuals with accounting expertise and solid management skills to provide leadership in the workplace. The CMA designation offers an endless variety of job opportunities. As this year's CMA ambassador, I would like to increase awareness about the CMA designation and to help other students learn about the benefits associated with the CMA designation. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you want to learn more about the CMA designation or have general inquires or concerns.

If you would like to contact Ashley, feel free to email her at
