

2011-12 CMA STUDENT AMBASSADOR – Emily Dimytosh – Queen’s University - Bachelor of Commerce

Emily Dimytosh is a fourth year bachelor of Commerce student at Queen’s School of Business in Kingston, Ontario. She is currently a candidate in The Next 36 where she has 3 teammates, 4 months, and $50,000 to build a mobile application company. Before The Next 36, Emily founded Practically Green Solutions and helped over 75 companies reduce their environmental impact. Emily’s extracurricular pursuits include co-producing and hosting TvCogeco’s That Green Show and managing the social media strategy for Queen’s Learning Strategies Development. When she’s not filming a new episode, or tweeting study strategies, Emily enjoys rock climbing, trampolining, and perfecting new dessert recipes.

If you would like to contact Emily, feel free to email her at emily@whadyathinkmobile.ca

For further information about becoming a CMA Ambassador, please contact Monyem Raza directly at mraza@cmaontario.org.