

2011-12 CMA STUDENT AMBASSADOR – Sam Bhatthal – McMaster University – DeGroote School of Business – MBA

My name is Sam Bhatthal and I am one of McMaster University's CMA student ambassadors for 2011-2012. I graduated from the Honours Life Science program at McMaster in 2009 and am now enrolled in the MBA program at the DeGroote School of Business. As a student I am involved in extracurricular activities fulfilling the duties of the VP of Events for the DeGroote Women in Management Association and VP of Special Projects for the MBAs Without Borders Club. I hope to be able to use the management, analytical and leadership skills attained while completing my MBA and CMA to pursue a career in the Energy industry.
