

Applying Your True Colors™

This follow-up to the highly popular and successful “Revealing Your True Colors™” session takes participants knowledge of True Colours and helps them apply it to various situations. A deeper understanding of the principles is created thereby increasing daily use and comfort with the model.

As with the original True Colors™ seminar delivered in May 2010 and May 2008, this session is highly engaging and interactive. Unlike the introductory session however, this advanced module allows for personal reflection and awareness.

Key components of the session include:

- A refresher on the Values, Joys, Strengths and Needs of each of the four temperaments.
- Communicating with intent and understanding listening styles.
- Team building and team development.
- Managing/Leading/Coaching
- Improving job performance
- How to recognize in and out of esteem behaviours and help bring individuals back to their full, bright selves.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Attendance in a “Revealing Your True Colors™” session is a mandatory pre-requisite for this session. If there are newer members attending who have not been through the original session, they will be seated with the facilitator and have a working dinner to go over the True Colors™ model and reveal their own True Colors™ spectrum. There are a limited number of spaces available for the crash course of “Revealing Your True Colors™” and they are subject to an additional materials fee of $10.00.
