

Board Work: Good for You Professionally and Personally

Please join us on Wednesday, November 17, 2010 at 6:00 p.m. for a dinner which will feature a lively panel discussion about why our professional skills are so important to not-for-profit Board of Directors in our region and what we can expect as a return on our investment – professionally, with our employees and in new business development opportunities.

Cathy Reynolds, CFP, Associate Director of Investors Group will moderate the discussion. The panelists include:

Mark Philbin – Mark is a well-know radio show host, half of the Mark and Ingrid morning show on 95.5 FM and has been actively involved in and supporting many local charities in the Quinte area. Most recently Mark has held for two years the position of Campaign Chair for the United Way of Quinte. Mark will share his thoughts on Why I Volunteer and How it Makes a Difference in our Community.

David Carberry – David is the Plant Manager at Procter & Gamble, Belleville and has worked globally with Procter & Gamble for the past 23 years. He has served on various Board of Directors for the past 7 years. David will share the benefits of Corporate Social Responsibility and how Corporations are benefitting and engaging their employees to improve the communities that they live and work in.

Allison Ferrill – Allison is the Executive Director of Belleville Community Trust and has been in her role for the past 10 years. Belleville Community Trust is funded in part by the United Way of Quinte and Allison has been very involved as a volunteer over the years. Allison will be sharing how a high performing Board of Directors makes a difference in our community and specifically the need for CMA's to be a part of that.

Kim Egan – Kim is a CMA and has lived and worked in the Belleville area for the past 20 years. Since 2006 Kim has been the Treasurer of the United Way of Quinte and as well is currently the Treasurer for the Belleville Quinte West Community Health Centre. Kim will share her experience in terms of returns for your professional career and the effort required.

Jim Dimovski, Manager, Member Network from CMA Ontario will share the background and functionality of the CMA volunteer portal and future plans for CMAs.
