Roles of Leadership

This morning session will look at the evolving role of leaders throughout all levels of the organization and serves as both an introductory session and a worthwhile refresher course.

Participants will:

- Help define what leadership means to them
- Define what the role of leaders is
- Differentiate between managers and leaders
- Discover the advantages of Ethical Leadership

About the Speaker

Joseph Palumbo, MBA, FCMA has the rare knowledge of what organizations desire from their future leaders and what tomorrow's leaders want from their organizations. With a keen eye for assessing and motivating talent, and the ability to clearly articulate a strategic vision, he has successfully built one of the world's top business career development centres. He provides visionary leadership in a dynamic and increasing competitive global market. Joseph is an executive coach, a leadership trainer, a team leader and a global brand builder.

As an Executive Director for The Schulich School of Business of York University, a premier global business school, Joseph is the main corporate, government and organizational relationship executive next to the Dean of the school. Joseph develops on a global basis, new alliances and cultivates existing relationships with diverse firms at the most senior strategic, operational and human resource areas. Joseph helps the school fundraise, develop strategic partnerships and offer talent solutions that attract, retain and develop leadership. Joseph has 28+ years of diverse business experience and has held Executive Board positions for 12 years. Joseph acts as a spokesperson and enthusiastic ambassador for the Schulich School of Business and The United Way and loves both media and the podium.

A passionate life-long learner, Joseph obtained a marketing degree from York University, a CMA designation, and his MBA from The Schulich School of Business. Joseph has recently completed certificates in: CEO and HR Alliance (Harvard) and Strategic Decision Making and HR (Wharton). Joseph is certified in both Business Career Assessment & Counseling and Emotional Intelligence (EQi) Testing and Facilitation. Recently, Joseph was awarded with a Fellow of the Society of Management Accountants of Canada (FCMA) for his leadership in the profession and the community.
