

Toronto West District Registration Notice

Learning Styles

Toronto West District invites you to an exciting evening of networking and personal development at the exquisite Boulevard Club.

Given our last event on The Employer Side Interview presentation last winter, was a success, we have invited Dina Barazza back to deliver a new session on Learning Styles.

Dina always brings her positive energy, knowledge and sense of humor to her interactive learning workshops.

By participating in this interactive session you will be able to:

- discover your own personal learning style
- explore three main types of learning styles
- see how to apply this knowledge to your day to day business routine
- improve your communication and team building skills

You will also have a chance to mingle with your colleagues and meet representatives of our long time sponsor Morton Grey Inc. in a cozy Terrace Lounge overlooking the lake Ontario before heading to a gourmet dinner!
