

Leveraging the CMA Skill Set

The Sudbury CMA Subcommittee is happy to start off the year with a great networking and professional development event on Friday April 8th, 2011.

Our guest speaker, John Pollesel is the Director for Base Metal Operations North Atlantic and Chief Operating Officer for Vale Canada and has agreed to share during our luncheon the contribution his CMA designation has made to his professional development and career success. Specifically, John will present his expertise on “Leveraging the CMA skill-set to create career opportunities”.

About the Speaker:

John Pollesel has extensive management experience, specializing in the mining industry where he has been employed for more than 20 years. He joined Vale in August of 2008 in the capacity of VP Sustainability and Business Services for the Ontario Operations and in July of 2009 was promoted to the role of VP Production Services and Support for the Canada/UK region and General Manager for Ontario Operations.

Mr. Pollesel is a CMA Ontario Fellow. He graduated from Laurentian University with a Masters degree in Business Administration and holds an Honors BA in Accounting from the University of Waterloo.
