The Road Toward an Accessible Ontario – What Leaders Need To Know

Is your workplace prepared for compliance under Ontario's new Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA) Customer Service Standards requirements?

The deadline for compliance in the private sector is January 1, 2012. And while a last resort, fines can be up to $50,000.00 for individuals and $100,000.00 for corporations for each day that an offence occurs.

Learn what your organization must do to comply with this important new legislation by attending our upcoming informative and interactive breakfast event.

proLearning innovations, an organization with years of experience assisting small, medium and large organizations with their human resource and training needs, will provide our members with important information you need to know. The time to begin putting compliance plans in place is now – January 1, 2012 is closer than you think!

Obtain Insights On:

- Key requirements of the legislation
- Reporting requirements
- How to determine what your organization needs to do to be compliant
- Options available to ensure compliance in a time and cost-effective manner

About the Speakers:

Wendy Bircher, M.Ed – President, proLearning innovations

Wendy has worked in the Human Resources field for over 20 years, and has an expertise in various related areas including HR Management, Diversity and Inclusion, and AODA compliance.

Debbie Yip, CHRP, CMC – Vice President, Human Resources and Diversity

As an HR leader with over 20 years experience, Debbie has taken a lead role in the development of proLearning's AODA programs and products. Her expert knowledge of the AODA legislation, combined with her years of HR experience, ensures she truly understands the challenges organizations face when implementing the AODA within their organizations.
